

Khelat Bhawan — Pathuria Ghata Ghosh Bari

A Living Legacy Since 1845 | Heritage Archival Monograph & Guide

1. The Legacy of Khelat Bhawan (1845)

Established in 1845 by Babu Khelat Chandra Ghosh at 47 Pathuria Ghata Street, North Kolkata, Khelat Bhawan stands as an architectural and cultural jewel of 19th-century Bengal. Featuring Doric and Corinthian classical colonnades, marble courtyards, and ornate cast-iron filigree, the palace embodies the high aesthetic synthesis of the Bengal Renaissance.

2. Sacred Tradition: Unbroken Durga Puja Since 1855

For over 171 continuous years, the sacred Thakur Dalan has celebrated the annual autumnal worship of Maa Durga with traditional Ekchala Daker Saaj idol, 108 lotus sandhi puja, and public mahaprasad distribution.

3. Sanctified Memory: Sri Ramakrishna Paramhansa (1881)

In 1881, saint Sri Ramakrishna Paramhansa graced Khelat Bhawan, participating in devotional music and blessing the Ghosh family, an event commemorated in Sri Ramakrishna Kathamrita.

4. Seven Generations of Heritage Guardianship

From the founder Babu Khelat Ghosh to 21st-century custodians, seven unbroken generations have stewarded the deity endowments, literary manuscripts, and classical music traditions of North Calcutta.

5. The Three Active Cultural Trusts

- Lakshmi Narayan Gopal Radha Krishna Jew Trust (Est. 1920) — Religious rites & deity worship.
- Khelat Ghosh Memorial Trust (Est. 1975) — Classical music festivals & architectural conservation.
- Artist Nectar Council of Culture (Est. 1985) — Youth performing arts & community welfare.

6. Official Contact & Estate Enquiries

Address: 47, Pathuria Ghata Street, Kolkata – 700006

Phone: +91 98310 93021 / +91 99031 34231

Email: councilofculture.ghoshbari47@gmail.com